PHILADELPHIA, PA – On Friday, March 27, 2015, from 6:00pm to 10:00pm, Greater Philadelphia Health Action, Inc. (GPHA), is celebrating its 45th anniversary of providing quality medical, dental, behavioral health and pharmacy services to the community. The celebration will take place at the African American Museum of Philadelphia located 701 Arch Street.

With the official program and award ceremony beginning at 7:30p.m., GPHA will present the “2015 Carl Moore Award”, named after the founder of Greater Philadelphia Health Action, Inc., to State Senator Anthony H. Williams, 8th District, for his years of leadership, dedication, and commitment to the community. In addition, Councilman Kenyatta Johnson, 2nd District, will be presented with the “2015 GPHA Advocate Community Award” for his tireless efforts in improving communities.

NBC 10 Philadelphia’s Monique Braxton will serve as master of ceremonies for GPHA’s 45th anniversary. Confirmed distinguished guests include Councilwoman Cindy Bass, Councilman Mark Squilla, State Senator Shirley Kitchen, State Representative Jordan Harris, State Representative W. Curtis Thomas, and State Representative Rosita Youngblood. The 45th Anniversary Diamond Sponsors, Health Partners, and Philadelphia Suburban Development Corporation (PSDC) as well as, esteemed industry leaders such as executive management, and community partners of Greater Philadelphia Health Action, Inc. will also be in attendance to commemorate this special occasion.
